NOVEMBER 2026

REPUBLICAN WOMEN OF CALIFORNIA FALLBROOK

Elephant's Ear

ISSUE #71

PRESIDENT - MICHELLE FITZGERALD

AMERICA 250

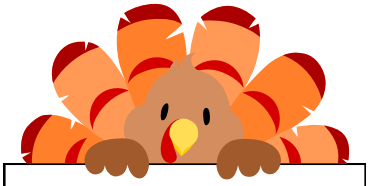

Dear Fellow Republican Women,

November brings cooler days and a moment to give thanks. We have poured ourselves into the election season—calls, postcards, conversations, and hours at Headquarters. Whatever the results, our work continues. Secure borders, parental rights, lower costs for families, protection of women's spaces, and honest elections remain the foundation of the communities we want for our children and grandchildren.

Join us Friday, November 13, at the Historic Fallbrook Mission Theater (231 N. Main Ave.). Doors open at 9:30AM; meeting begins at 10:00 a.m. Cost is $10 cash. RSVP at rwcfallbrook.org. We will also elect our 2027 Board of Directors—your vote matters. Bring a friend, renew your membership, and come ready to keep building. The highest reward for our toil is not what we get for it, but what we become by it.

In service and gratitude,

Michelle

Speaker Spotlight

~ Christine Moosa - RWCF 1st VP - Programs and Cheryl Hurley - RWCF Treasurer

Several of our members attended our June Social at Rainbow Oaks and were pleasantly surprised that we included a speaker. This speaker will be joining us for our November 13th meeting! He will share his name and affiliation at our meeting, and share his occupation which includes using Flock cameras to apprehend those selling drugs. He is knowledgeable and articulate.

Please join us for an insightful presentation. Invite friends and family who share our conservative views.

Republican Women of California-Fallbrook
Mission Statement

Our goal is to educate the community by communicating information, encouraging involvement, and outreach.

Our objectives, as stated in our Bylaws are to:
· Support and defend the Constitution of the United States of America against all enemies foreign and domestic.
· Promote a wider knowledge of principles and policies of the Republican Party.
· Cooperate with the Republican State and County Central Committees in campaign work for the election of Republican candidates for office, including non-partisan offices.

The cornerstone of the Republican philosophy is the belief that each person is responsible for his or her own place in our society. Individuals are encouraged to join the Party to help secure and preserve the benefits of society.

We believe that government should be limited to doing for people those things they cannot do for themselves. The right to determine individual destiny should lie in the hands of the individual, and we believe in the competitive free enterprise system. We believe that peace and freedom can be protected only if America maintains a defense strong enough to deter an aggressor. We strive to cut overlapping and unnecessary government programs.
